BUSINESS AND REAL ESTATE LAW

> Steven Kramer is a leading attorney in Central Florida. In addition to numerous national and local radio, speaking, and media engagements, Kramer serves as a weekly commentator on the SBK Live show on Real Radio 104.1, and as a weekly guest on the Monsters in the Morning for “Kramer Makes the Call,” broadcast nationally on Sirius XM.

Kramer is active on the Internet and in social media. He has more than 25,000 Twitter followers from across the globe. His Internet videos on law have garnered tens of thousands of views and earned Kramer a dedicated fan base.

Kramer has a pedigree in real estate and business that goes back generations. “Both of my grandfathers were entrepreneurs in the real estate business,” says Kramer. Not surprisingly, Kramer has built the cornerstone of his practice on business and real estate law. Since before the housing crisis began, Kramer has represented thousands of clients facing commercial and residential foreclosure throughout Florida. “The writing was on the wall, and homeowners’ and businesses needed help. I wanted Central Florida residents to know there was someone who was there to assist,” says Kramer.

Kramer has also represented numerous business clients ranging from start-up technology companies to established industry leaders. In addition to earning his law degree, Kramer has earned a Certificate from the University of Florida in Intellectual Property and a Certificate in Small Business Leadership from Harvard Business School. Kramer has also had personal experience as a business owner and entrepreneur. By bringing these different perspectives and influences to bear, Kramer believes that he can offer clients unique insights and novel approaches to running their businesses.

Kramer has served as President of the Seminole County Bar Association, President of the Seminole County Legal Aid Society, President of the Williams’ Inn of Court, and served on numerous boards for community organizations.

Kramer is also a musician; he plays piano, guitar, ukulele, and sings. Kramer has performed professionally as a musician and has licensed his compositions for numerous television shows including “The Newlyweds,” “The Osbournes,” “Sorority Life,” and video games such as “Outlaw Volleyball.” Kramer has appeared on MTV, Fuse, and VH1. Kramer believes that the same creativity that allows him to be a successful composer, also allows him to offer creative and innovative approaches to his clients’ legal issues.

Kramer has been listed in the “Best Lawyers in America,” the “Florida Legal Elite” by Florida Trend Magazine, the “Top Lawyers in Orlando” by Orlando Magazine, and Martindale-Hubbell as a Client Rated “Preeminent” Attorney. Kramer is rated 10 out of 10 “superb” by Avvo.com, a website that reviews and rates attorneys. Kramer also earned the “Attorney of the Year Award” from the Seminole County Young Lawyers, the “Distinguished Pro Bono Service Award” from the Seminole County Legal Aid Society, and the “Outstanding Pro Bono Service Award” from the Florida Supreme Court.

Kramer is the founder of the Kramer Law Firm, a full-service law firm with its headquarters in Altamonte Springs, Florida.<
