

Attorneys Recognized for Legal Service to the Community

The Seminole County Bar Association Legal Aid Society (SCBALAS) held an awards ceremony at Heathrow Country Club to recognize the work of local attorneys for their advocacy and pro bono work on behalf of the economically disadvantaged, including children and the elderly susceptible to exploitation.

According to SCBALAS, in the past fiscal year, volunteer and staff attorneys served 1,172 families, which included 1,381 children. Volunteer attorneys donated pro bono legal services valued at approximately $389,400, which included advice, counsel, pro se assistance, and legal assistance in court.

The legal aid office is located in Historic Longwood.
